I am writing in response to Councilman David Anderson's Opinion in the Delaware State News dated November 29. I agree with him 100%. I love this City. I have lived & worked here for more than 40 years. I understand the plight of the homeless and I will not judge their situation. However, I cannot sympathize with individuals that are putting their safety and my safety in jeopardy by standing (and even sitting in a wheelchair!) in the middle of a busy roadway. We are not doing any favors by handing them cash through a car window. They need help and as Mr. Anderson pointed out, help is available if they truly want it. The pending safety Ordinance needs to pass & the City needs to continue reaching out.
